

Wisdom is finding out what you should do and doing it.

DAY 1

Read James 1:5

Last week, we learned that wisdom is worth searching for! So where does wisdom come from?

God is the source of all wisdom! We know that because all things were made by God. There isn't any question He can't answer or problem He can't solve. And what's even better, when you ask Him, God will give you wisdom freely and without finding fault. He is ready and willing to guide us when we need help.

Fill in the missing vowels in today's verse below. Read the verse aloud and then thank God for the wisdom He gives freely.

DAY 2

Read Matthew 7:24

Have you ever built a sandcastle at the beach or in a sandbox? What happens to your beautiful creation when the tide rolls in or a big rainstorm hits the playground? Yep, it's destroyed! Jesus told this story about two builders. The foolish man built his house on the sand. When the rains came and flood waters rose, his home was destroyed. The other built his house on solid rock. And you can probably guess what happened when the storms hit his home. It was safe and protected because its foundation was strong.

When we look at the life of Jesus, at how He treated people, the things that He said and the way that He lived, we find wisdom at every turn. Jesus showed us how to live wisely. When we follow Jesus' example, it's like a building a house on a strong foundation.

Read Psalm 107:43

How do you know that your parent or caregiver loves you? How can you feel their love for you? How do you show love to others? Do they feel your love for them? Love requires action. It's more than simply saying, "I love you." God loves you. You can feel His love when you stop to think about all His loving deeds.

Name some things God has done for you by filling the blanks below.

God has given me

God sent His only Son,, so I can have a relationship with him now and always.

God made

When you know someone loves you, it's easy to trust them. God loves you, always. He proved that love when He sent Jesus, His only Son, for you. He knows what's best in every situation. You can trust God to give you wisdom.

Trust God to give you wisdom.

Read Proverbs 2:6

Have you ever asked a friend for help and they gave you bad advice?

You: "I forgot to study for our test today. What am I going to do?"

Unwise friend: "Stick the notes under your paper. The teacher won't notice, and then you can look up your answers."

You: "Should I go talk to the new kid? He's sitting over there all by himself."

Unwise friend: "Nah, he doesn't look like he wants to play anyway."

You: "My mom says I'm supposed to ask about video games before I play them."

Unwise friend: "This game is totally fine. I play it all the time."

While our friends might sometimes give us bad advice, God never will! He is the source of all wisdom. God will guide us to do what's right, always. You can trust God to give you wisdom.

Is there a decision you need to make that you're struggling with? Do you need some advice? Have you prayed about it? Read this verse aloud and then talk to God about what's going on. Ask God to help you see what you should do and to give you the confidence to follow through.
